GeoInsight, Inc. has an opening for the following opportunity in our Littleton, MA office.

Entry-level Geologist or Scientist with 0 to 2 years experience and a strong work ethic. Candidate should have relevant coursework or work-study experience, and be available to perform field investigations, project work, surveying, sample collection, data evaluation and tabulation, calculations, compliance review and assistance, and basic report writing/preparation. Work may include Environmental Health and Safety, and Hazardous Materials Management.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:
- Performs basic field-orientated tasks including data collection and measurements;
- Prepares field notes and related documentation as assigned following company standards;
- Maintains excel databases associated with regulatory compliance;
- Assists with preparing regulatory submittals, such as permit applications and plans;
- Oversees well installations and soil borings;
- Conducts ground water, soil, sediment and surface water sampling;
- Retrieves necessary data using online databases, off-line records, or other means;
- Enters collected data into report format using applicable software and company formatting guidelines; and
- Applies basic knowledge of federal, state and local regulatory requirements and regulatory programs; and

Position Requirements:
- 4 year (accredited) college degree in Geology, Chemistry, or Environmental Engineering (or related discipline).
- Excellent written and oral communication and research skills.
- Position requires car and independent transportation to work sites.
- Requires extensive field work and some heavy lifting.
- Computer literate.
- 40-hour OSHA HAZWOPER training a plus.
- Previous consulting experience is a plus.

GeoInsight is supportive of personal and professional growth. We offer an excellent compensation and benefit package. Our work environment favors assertiveness, creativity, and forward thinking, and you will join other individuals that place a high value on working hard and having fun.

Please forward your resume to:
GeoInsight, Inc.
Attn: Human Resources
186 Granite Street, 3rd Floor, Suite A,
Manchester, NH 03101

E-mail: careers@geoinc.com
Fax: (603) 314-0821
www.geoinsightinc.com