Join us this Friday for information, advice and tips for writing that highly important personal statement for health profession school applications. Daryl Gehman works in the Lazarus Center for Career Development and will explain this vital written piece...what works and what may not!

Lunch will be available for the first 40 people
November 18, 12:15 – 1:00 PM
McConnell 103

Smith College
Health and STEM Professions Lunchbags
www.smith.edu/science-advising
413.585.4296